

August 26, 2018 Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time Lectionary: 122 Gospel JN 6:60-69

Many of Jesus' disciples who were listening said, "This saying is hard; who can accept it?" Since Jesus knew that his disciples were murmuring about this, he said to them, "Does this shock you? What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life, while the flesh is of no avail. The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe." Jesus knew from the beginning the ones who would not believe and the one who would betray him. And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father." As a result of this, many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him. Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?" Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

Spiritual Reflection:

Living one's faith does not mean things would be easy. We see throughout the Scriptures that the opposite is true. God promises us though not temporary happiness but lasting joy.

Spiritual Questions:

1. How do you handle rejection?
2. What parts of our faith "shock you"?
3. How do you handle doubts?
4. Do you believe God is "Holy" and what does that mean?
5. How do you act towards those who know might hurt you?
